SAFE FOR SALE.—NEW—Apply to
GEO. F. JUNE, 76 Nassau st., N. Y.

NEW YORK, March 25, 1870.

The intense excitement which prevailed in the Gold market during the first part of this month, when, with large transactions, the premium fluctuated wildly between 110½—on the 9th inst.—and 114—11th—has been followed by a comparative dullness of this market and steadiness of the premium since the middle of the month; 111½ and 112½ having been the outside figures touched within the last ten days. At the time of our writing gold is weak at 112. The uncertainties attending financial legislation in Washington, especially as regards the Funding Bill, make operators timid; and although "bulls and bears," arrayed in powerful armies, are eagerly waiting for the battle-word to come from that direction, both seem in the meantime to evade any serious engagement. So far, private advices have it, that the Committee of Ways and Means disagree on the Funding Bill as it passed the Senate; a majority of the committee favoring a uniform bond bearing either 4 or 4½ per cent. Much of the course of gold in the immediate future will also depend on the action of the Secretary of the Treasury, who, to-day, is reported as intending to increase, in April, the sales of Treasury gold, and to soon commence the payment of May coupons of bonds without rebate. Furthermore, the pending action of Congress on the St. Domingo treaty and on General Banks' resolution, giving belligerent rights to Cuba, are likely to materially affect the gold premium.

The Money Market remains abundantly supplied and extremely easy, notwithstanding the three last weekly statements of the city banks reflect the movement of currency from this business centre to the interior, as usual at this season of the year, for the pending April settlements. Call loans rule at 4@5 per cent on prime and mixed stock collaterals respectively, while first class government dealers are readily supplied at 3 per cent. Time loans are in less favor with lenders, who prefer keeping their funds well in hand, expecting soon to command higher rates of interest. Discounts of mercantile paper remain unimpaired by several recent failures of mercantile houses. Prime paper is readily discounted at 6½@8 per cent, and inferior names at higher figures, according to time and grades. Foreign exchanges are dull, but, under the diminished supply, and the prospective further decrease of cotton bills, rates are quite steady on the basis of sterling; 60 days', commercial, 108½@108¾; bankers', 108¾@108¾; sight, 109@109¼.

Governments are keeping in close sympathy with the course of gold. The other markets have been very irregular of late. The markets for Railroad and miscellaneous shares are especially feverish and on the verge of a "panic;" some of those highly inflated stock bubbles having commenced to collapse, and others being expected soon to follow. Outsiders and money lenders, hands off!!

W. L. Graham has been elected Cashier of the First National Bank of Middletown, N. Y., vice Daniel Corwin.

The Philadelphia Ledger publishes the following important letter from the official reporter of the United States Supreme Court concerning the character and sanction of the Legal Tender decision:

WASHINGTON, D. C. March 9, 1870.

In a recent issue of your paper I read this: OFFICE COMMISSIONERS OF SINKING FUND, HARRISBURG, Feb. 24, 1870.

RESOLVED, That inasmuch as the recent decision of the Supreme Court of the United States on the question of legal tenders was concurred in by only three judges out of five, in a court composed of seven judges, and the legislation of the State only authorizes the payment of her indebtedness in what is known as the legal-tender currency of the United States, it would not be advisable for the State Treasurer to make any change in the present mode of paying the obligations of the Commonwealth.

Attest, WM. B. HART,
Clerk to Commissioners of Sinking Fund.

When the decision in what is called the Legal Tender case was made, the Supreme Court of the United States consisted of eight judges, the number then fixed for it by law. And the decision that notes of the United States when tendered in payment of a contract made previously to the passage of a Legal Tender act of February, 1862, was no lawful tender, was concurred in by FIVE judges, not by THREE, as assumed in the paragraph quoted. These five Judges were, the Chief Justice, and Justices Nelson, Grier, Clifford, and Field. Judge Grier had left the bench before the opinions were DELIVERED, but he was on it when the case was argued in conference, and when the judgment of affirmance of the Court of Appeals of Kentucky, which had decided the tender bad, was irrevocably and perfectly agreed upon. And this, in substance, is stated in the opinion of the Court as officially printed, though not in others that I have seen.

While on this subject, and since I have seen it stated that the decision does not apply to INTEREST which has accrued since the Legal Tender acts, on obligations given before them, and that, under the decision, interest on such obligations may be paid in paper, I may take leave to add that the decision did apply to interest just as much as to principal. Part of the tender made in the case was exactly for interest: interest, I mean, which had accrued, after the passage of the Legal Tender act. The Court of Appeals made no distinction between principal and interest, but held the bonds bad in toto. And so the Supreme Court held it.

I may add that on no great constitutional question where professional and public opinion has been largely divided, do I recall a case for many years where the judges were unanimous, or nearer to unanimity than in the present one. That the case was not hastily adjudged, may be believed, not more from its importance than from the fact that the question involved in it was, in one case or in another, and with more or less fullness, argued at the bar not less than six different times, and was held very long under advisement. I am your obedient servant,

J. W. WALLACE.

BANK ITEMS.

Thomas Coggeshall, Esq., Postmaster of Newport, R. I., was on the 14th inst., elected President of the Aquidneck National Bank, in place of R. B. Kinsley, Esq., deceased.

Mr. Kinsley was one of the founders of the AQUIDNECK BANK, in 1854, and was elected its president, continuing to hold the same position under its National organization until the time of his death. He was widely known as an honest, upright, energetic business man, always obliging, and ready to assist whenever it was his privilege to do so. He was for more than 40 years proprietor of Kinsley's Express, and was also one of the largest stockholders of the Adams Express Company, and a director in the same at the time of his death.

The Tenth National Bank has removed from 29 Broad street to 348 Broadway.

The National Exchange Bank has removed from 194 Greenwich street to 180 Chambers street.

Wall street has been greatly excited over the series of daring forgeries perpetrated upon brokers there within the past few days, by the altering of checks in their amounts by chemicals. Two alterations of this kind have been made public. One was a check altered from $56 to $15,000 and another from $30 to $6,000. There is reason to believe that a number of others have also been committed by the same parties, the particulars of which have not been made public, the victims pocketing their losses in silence. The alteration was executed so perfectly and the paper glossed over so that an expert cannot detect them. Since the discovery of these frauds, it is proposed that checks of dissimilar colors shall be issued, such as red for $100s, yellow for $500s, blue for $1,000s, &c. Also to write over the face or amount of a check, in a different colored ink, the name of the party issuing the same. Many brokers are reported to have given instructions to their banks to certify no checks under $1,000.

Senator John Sherman has written to The Cincinnati Commercial under date of March 17, answering various criticisms on the bank sections of the Funding Bill. It is claimed he says, that it is unjust to compel the National Banks to secure their circulation by a deposit of the new bonds. It is said to violate the public faith pledged to them, and confiscate a part of their property. This is not true in any respect. Some of the National banks hold the bonds of '81, and the 10-40 bonds not yet due. These they may withdraw at any time, or sell, or hold, at their pleasure. The Funding bill places the '81s above par and the banks enjoy the full premium. The Government will ask only, by this bill, that the banks either use the new bonds for security, or retire from business with their property unimpaired, so that new banks, willing to aid in reducing the public debt, in exchange for a valuable franchise, may take their places. This is clearly within the power of Congress; it is just; it is for the interest of the banks; and its defeat will tend to overthrow the entire system. The right to issue notes is held by the banks at the pleasure of Congress, which reserves the right to change or modify the banking system. The National Banks were organized to accomplish three objects; 1. To absorb the paper of State banks; 2. To furnish a uniform currency; 3. To furnish a market for United States bonds. The system has been profitable to both the banks and the public. The Funding bill is based on the supposition that it will continue to be so. It proposes to withdraw the greenbacks and give the banks the entire field of circulation. It is said the National banks pay heavy taxes; if they go into private banking they will pay heavier taxes. As to going back to local State banks, that absurdity is out of the question. Senator Sherman asserts that he has always been a friend to the National Banking system. The movement against the bill, he says, does not come from the West, but from the men who have a sectional monopoly of the banking franchise, and "chiefly from a gentleman who, when Controller of the Currency, in violation of law, gave this monopoly to the old banks in New England and New York." The English Parliament did with the Bank of England exactly what this bill proposes to do with our banks.

MORE NEW COUNTERFEITS.

The Government detectives on Tuesday last arrested a counterfeiter named Aaron Elmer, and found upon him six new counterfeit $20s on the Oneida National Bank of Utica, N. Y., the Market National Bank of New York, and the National Bank of New York. They are from a new plate, and are well calculated to deceive the unwary. On Wednesday, the engraver of the plate was arrested, and ten of the counterfeits were found in his possession.

The Chief Clerk of the Treasury Department of Texas—C. Culmore—writes us from Austin, Tex., that there are counterfeit $5, $10s and $50s on the National Bank of Commerce of New York in circulation in that vicinity.

Treasurer Spinner reports that about three hundred dollars in counterfeit currency is received daily at the Treasury Department. These counterfeits have to be thrown out by lady counters employed for the purpose. A regulation of the Department requires that, for every counterfeit note passed over, an equal amount shall be deducted from the pay of the person counting it, but such instances are said to be very rare, the ladies seldom failing to detect spurious notes at a glance.

The last fifty cent note having been successfully counterfeited, another one differing from all the others that have preceded it is in preparation, which will contain a vignette of the Hon. E. M. Stanton for the ornamentation of the left end. The other end for the space of an inch will remain blank, for the purpose of showing the localized silver fibre, which will be so introduced as to make it a distinct feature of the note.

The Treasury Department is now trying a plan that is expected to render counterfeiting the currency almost impossible. It consists of covering the face of the bank bill with printing so finely executed that counterfeiters cannot afford to copy it. In one case, one word was repeated on a dollar note 32,000 times.

Counterfeit Tobacco Stamps.

The points of difference between the counterfeit and the genuine stamp are so marked as to be easily detected by the glass. They are as follows:

FIRST: The imprint in the counterfeit is badly engraved, and a trifle larger than the genuine. The words "Continental Bank Note Co., New York," in the genuine are small, distinct, and not connected, each letter standing separate, while in the counterfeit the letters are heavier, and more crowded, larger, and closer together, and in the word "Continental" the "l" joins the "n," making the "l" and "n" look like an "m," with a period at the end of the imprint in the counterfeit, which is omitted in the genuine.

SECOND: In the sky of the counterfeit, over the mane of the horse, will be observed four small dots: in the genuine the sky is made of straight lines.

THIRD: The ornamentations resembling small stars on each side of the vignette in the lathe work of the counterfeit look imperfect and blurred, while in the genuine they appear bright.

FOURTH: Over the white faced figure "6" on the left side of the stamp in the genuine is a small black figure, a part of the lathe work pattern which is wanting in the counterfeit, and the imitation lathe work of the counterfeit has a muddy appearance, while in the genuine the patterns are clear and distinct.

NEW COUNTERFEITS.

Every counterfeit that has ever been made has one or more mistakes in it. Our aim is to show what that mistake is.

50 CENT FRACTIONAL CURRENCY.

New Issue—A very good counterfeit. The portrait of Lincoln is coarser and darker than the genuine, and the lathe work in the centre of the die is also darker.

TRADESMEN'S NAT. B'K, N. Y. CITY.

20s, imitation. The paper is rather poor, the shading irregular, and impression imperfect, but it is a very dangerous counterfeit. The words "New York," read "New York."

NATIONAL BANK OF THE COMMON-WEALTH, New York City.

10s, imitation. A very dangerous counterfeit. The face of the bill is well done, and the green ink on the back a good color. Observe the representation of De Soto on the back of the bill—the hind legs of his horse are quite indistinct—in genuine they are distinct and well defined. Signatures engraved. Look out for them.

MARKET NAT. BANK, N. Y. City

20s, imitation. Well done and very likely to deceive. The green ink is darker than on the genuine.

5s, GREENBACKS.

The green ornamental engraving, lengthwise of the bill, in the counterfeit, is of a paler color than in the genuine, and has a brighter look than the dark green of the original. Seen under the microscope the engraving is coarse, but to the naked eye the bills have a very good appearance.

10s GREENBACKS.

The engraving is coarse. The vignette of Lincoln is a very indifferent engraving, and the scroll work around the medallion is poorly imitated. Letter C, twenty-third series.

10s, GREENBACKS.

An excellent imitation of the genuine. Note the following discrepancies. In the genuine, the shading around the 10 in the medallion appears like a fine net work, and runs close up to the figures. In the counterfeit, the shading is "picked up," and becomes coarser as it reaches the figures, forming a light streak or circular haze. Another test is on the figure 10 within the light circle. The genuine has three and one-third dots on the left on the fig. 10, while the counterfeit has but three. Thus:

GENUINE.

COUNTERFEIT.

But the surest test is under the left wing of the eagle. The genuine has FOUR DISTINCT ROWS OF FEATHERS under the wing, while in the counterfeit the rows of feathers are undefined. One issue of this counterfeit is of the new series, letter D, No. 53; another is letter D, with a small 5 under the D, No. 23. These counterfeits are the best we have ever seen.

Newer issues have appeared lately, in which the defects above referred to have been corrected. We would advise our patrons to refuse all tens, greenbacks, unless they know the parties from whom they receive them.

20s, GREENBACKS.

A dangerous counterfeit. Green ink a good color, but the paper too yellow. Principal defect is the die. No clear and distinct lines around the 20. Looks more like a collection of several spots. Female well done, but the face rather coarser than the genuine.

50s, GREENBACKS.

Imitation. Observe the figures 50 on back of the bill around the margin. The 5 in the imitation runs into the 0 on the lower left corner, and reads 550 instead of 50. The buttons on Hamilton's vest which are very distinct in genuine are scarcely discernable in the counterfeit. Genuine has FIVE while in the counterfeit you can hardly see FOUR. The note is dated March 10th, 1863. We would advise our patrons to scrutinize carefully all $50 Treasury Notes, unless they know the parties from whom they receive them.

FRAUDULENT BANKS.

Lynn Park National Bank, N. Y. (No such bank.)

2s. Very well done.

Nat. Union Bank of Linderpark, N. Y.

2s, (NO SUCH BANK) well calculated to deceive.

National Bank of Idaho Territory.

10s. Well done.

National Bank of the State "IN" N. Y.

10s. Coarsely done.

Mechanics' National Bank of Janesville, N. Y.—(NO SUCH BANK.)

10s. A very good looking bill—look out for them.

GREENBACKS.

COUNTERFEIT GREENBACKS.

1s, (1st kind) can be readily detected by the inferior style of the engraving, particularly the head of Chase. The mouth is crooked, the eyes imperfect, and the hair on the top of the head resembles side hair brushed over to cover baldness. The back is of a lighter green than the genuine.

1s, (2d kind) the general appearance is very coarse and may readily be detected; green ink is very pale. On the imitation there is a black streak under the red figures on the upper part of the bill; none in gen.

2s, imit., well executed. Coat of Hamilton badly done. The shirt bosom of Hamilton is very dark and uneven, but in the genuine white and plain. The shading of the words "UNITED STATES" light and broken.

5s, 10s, genuine notes without the red seal, and others reported without the usual number being printed upon them.

5s, imit., words "United States" heavily shaded. Gen. are clear, lightly shaded and plain. The words "Patented 5th June, 1867," under the words N. York are not on the counterfeit bill. All the counterfeits are letter A, and are $\frac{1}{2}$ inch shorter than the genuine.

On the new series of letter "A," around the figure of Liberty on left end is a plain black line. On the counterfeits, this line along the bottom of the figure running towards the right of the note forms two distinct lines, on gen. only one. But this may be a counterfeiter's dodge to have it described and alter it afterwards.

5s, imit., this bill is well calculated to deceive, and the only difference we can detect is in the die on the right end enclosing the figure 5. The genuine has three black circles enclosing the 5. The imit. has only two, and on lower right end figure 8, and on left end series 90.

10s, Paper very light, and the green ink of all lighter shade. Dated March 10th, 1862.

10s imit. There are 16 small Xs on upper right margin, and only 15 on the genuine. The words "Printed by the National Bank Note Co." on lower left margin extends over 9 of the Xs on imit. and 8 on the genuine.

10s, imit., has 14 small X's on upper right margin—16 on left. The gen. has 15 X's each side of engraver's name. Portrait of Pres. Lincoln is very coarse and pale looking; imit. are dated Washington, March 10, 1862, letter C.

50s, very close imit. of gen., the engraving is good, in the center figure the foot of the female can scarcely be seen. On the left end bottom are the words "Payable at the Treasury of the U. S. at New York." The A's in payable are too small and uneven. The letter 'u' in the word 'The' is not crossed in the centre. The imprint is defective; the green ink is of too light a color.

50s, alt'd from 2s, portrait of Hamilton on left centre. The vignettes of the two-dollar and fifty-dollar Treasury note are the same. Ingenious persons are counterfeiting the body of the fifties and using the vignettes of the twos, producing a note that deceives experts.

50s, imit. observe the figures 50 on back of the bill around the margin, the 5 in the imit. runs into the 0, gen. does not. The word 'FIFTY' around the above 50 can scarcely be read. Words 'LEGAL TENDER' is very much blurred. Letter C dated March 8, '63. On the left lower corner the No. 550 instead of 50 enclosed in one circle.

50s, imit., observe the head of Hamilton, upon the face of the note, which represents the line of the waistcoat crossing the white collar at the neck. The acute angle formed by the shape of the collar, so far as it is shown, is perfect in the counterfeit note; but in the genuine the lines of the flesh were drawn by the engraver across the point of the collar at its junction with the waistcoat, for the purpose of relieving the angle of the sharpness it would otherwise have exhibited. This difference is not readily observed unless the notes are perfectly clean. The other discrepancy is in the shape of the ornaments in the border on each end of the face of the bills, and in the whole border on the back. The figures "50" are engraved on a green ground, of which the rim, in the genuine bill, is in octagonal form, rather well defined, though the angles are not sharp. The eight sides of what at first view appeared to be circles, may be easily discerned. In the counterfeit bill the border ornaments, containing the "50" are octagonal in only a very slight degree, and seem to be perfect circles. The general appearance of the counterfeit gives no indication of its true character.

100s, imit. the red figures are much larger than the figures of any Treasury Notes, the wings of the eagle are very coarse—the double rule running from it is heavier, and the curve twice as large, while there is a diagonal shading at the joint of the imprint with the rule, which does not appear on the genuine. On the right end of the back of the bill, the 100 in the circles are inverted, thus, 001. In the genuine this inversion is on the left end. The imprint, American Bank Note Co., is very uneven, and too large.

100s, imit., (2d kind) of the notes issued under the act of February, 1862, well executed. The spurious note is smaller, and the coloring on the back is paler than on the genuine bill. The words "one hundred dollars" on the right hand side of the counterfeit are smaller than on the genuine note.

100s, imit., (3d kind) the note is smaller than the genuine, the spread eagle is very coarse, and the shading of UNITED STATES is badly done. The bill is calculated to deceive.

COUNTERFEIT COUPONS.

The following are the words on the coupons: "Acts of July 17 and August 5, 1862. The United States of America will pay to bearer fifteen dollars for six months' interest due 1st January, 1867, upon bond No. 785, for $500. L. E. Chittenden, Register United States Treasury."

FIVE CENT COIN COUNTERFEITS Are in circulation. They may be distinguished from the genuine by the softness of the metal.

COUNTERFEIT

FRACTIONAL CURRENCY.

Old Issue.

50s, imit., the portraits of Washington differs one from another; in the genuine they are all alike; the green color looks light and pale.

25s, imit., well executed. Look out.

2d Issue.

10s, imitation. All gen. on the top has the word "Depositories," the imitation reads "Depositories."

50s, imit., have a pale slate color. The small barrels on lower right corner are very indistinct. The gen. have six barrels perfectly clear and plain. Three on lower row, two on next, and one on top. The counterfeit barrels are black, and gen. are white.

50s raised from 5s.

3d Issue.

50s, imit., two kinds of the new long 50 cent currency. The imitation of one kind has DESIGNATED on upper right corner instead of DESIGNATED. The second kind has designated correctly spelt, but on the little American Shield, under the Eagle, there is a black line drawn across the upright bars of the Shield. Not so on the genuine.

25s, imit., are very pale and coarse. The letter C in cents on left end is smaller than the other letters, and too far off.

New Issue.

25, imitation. Above the words "Treasury Department," on the bottom of the bill in the genuine there is a fine dotted line—the counterfeit has a straight line.

Notice the shading of the "25" on the back of the note. The genuine is dark, while the counterfeit is very pale, and very little darker than the other green. The word "of" on the face of the genuine appears thus—"of"—on the counterfeit "of."

25s, imit., well executed, but may be detected by the absence of a period (.) after the word Treasurer under Spinner's name; the work is better than any we have previously seen and liable to deceive unless carefully examined.

25s, well executed; head of Chittenden; where it reads "Furnished only by the Assistant Treasurers" the Assistant is spelt "Assistants." In the genuine the shading of the letter "E" in "Five" is unbroken, while the counterfeit has a little notch in it.

50s, well executed. The engraving on the face of the note is excellent. The reverse is slightly blurred. The notes are an eighth of an inch narrower than the genuine.

50s, the "y" in "Colby's" name crosses a line of the coat in the genuine, but not in the counterfeit.

50s, the line of stars on counterfeit between the figures "50" at the top and bottom of the back of the note have white centres, while the entire stars on genuine are in green. The reading in black on the genuine note clear and distinct, while on the counterfeit the bronze is printed on the black, the words "FIFTY CENTS" being almost obliterated.

50s, well done. The last "e" in the signature of F. E. Spinner is omitted in some, and the (.) after print on one end; and the d. after March 20.

50s. New and dangerous counterfeits of the last issue of the fifty cent fractional currency notes, which bear upon their face the head of Treasurer Spinner, have been detected by the Treasury Department. It can be detected by the absence of a period (.) after the word print on the right end, and also under the letter "d" in "March 20," on the left end. The paper is thicker than that of the genuine notes, and the general appearance is calculated to deceive unless closely inspected.

COUNTERFEIT 7.50 BONDS.

The seal is slightly larger than the genuine; the red ink with which it is stamped is a shade lighter, and the points projecting from the seal are blurred and a little longer than the genuine. The imprint at the bottom of the face of the bond is set different in the margin, there being more space given it than in the genuine. The borders of the coupon which are attached to the counterfeit bonds are larger, while the red figures are finer than in the genuine. The borders of the ornamental lathe work are blurred and somewhat indifferently executed. The figures denoting the bond are slightly uneven, while the blue ink in which they are printed is a duller blue and lacks the metallic glossy appearance of the genuine.

A counterfeit coupon for three dollars, purporting to belong to a one hundred dollar 5.20 bond, has been received at the Treasury Department, which had been sent from Germany to New York, cashed here and forwarded to Washington for collection. The counterfeit is a lithograph, and when compared with the genuine coupon it could be easily detected by the most inexperienced persons; as the execution is rough and haphazard, the paper thin and common, and a trifle shorter than the genuine coupon. It assumes to belong to the 5.20s of 1862, fourth series, and bore the stamp of some German house on the back, but too indistinctly to be deciphered fully.

20s, init. The engraving good, but darker than the genuine. The woman's face, arms and neck in the engraving of the Battle of Lexington are black—in the genuine they are white; the clouds back of the soldier's heads are heavy and dark in the counterfeit—in the genuine they are scarcely to be seen.
